Land Design Teleconference Planned For Thursday, August 27th

Landscape Design Teleconference Program

From time to time I get calls from folks who want me to do a landscape plan for their home, or maybe a small public facility. Have you been frustrated because, A) you don't know how to do landscape design, B) you don't have time to do a landscape plan. Now is your chance to learn about designing the landscape for the residential setting!

This one hour teleconference will present the basic concepts involved in the landscape design process. It also will cover criteria for selecting suitable landscape plants. A professional landscape architect will join Dave Williams to share some of the practical considerations in planning the residential landscape as well. There will be time during the program for you to call in with questions.

I think this can be a fun and informative teleconference so I hope you will plan to view this program with me. The program entitled, "Residential Landscape Design," will air from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. (CST), Thursday, August 27. The program will be up-linked through Galaxy 6, channel 24. We will downlink in the Kitchen of the County Extension Office at the New Brockton Farm Center. So mark your calendar now and be there.

Fall Armyworms On Home Lawns

Fall armyworms have been an annual pest on crops and lawns in the Southeast for many years. Lush, green, well-maintained bermudagrasses seem to be preferred, but fall armyworms also attack other grasses. This year reports have begun to come in of fall armyworms on lawns and hay fields from south Alabama and as far north as DeKalb County.

Fall armyworms usually occur in late summer or early fall, hence the name. During most years in Coffee County reports of fall armyworms begin to come in late July and early August. Infestations seem to be more severe and widespread in dry periods that occur during these times.

When full grown, larvae may be up to 1.5 inches long and vary in color from light green to almost black with several along the body. The "face" is marked with a light-colored inverted "Y". Development from egg to fully grown larva takes place in about 2-3 weeks. Larvae then burrow into the soil and form pupae from which moths emerge in about two weeks or a little less.

Damage to turf may vary in appearance and severity according to type of grass and maintenance practices. Bermudagrasses may appear to "thin out" with development of brown spots. Fall armyworm damage on bermudagrass lawns may result in areas that appear to be "burned" or browned-out. This is the result of grass plants rapidly developing after fall armyworm larvae have drought damage. Well established, properly maintained bermudagrass is rarely killed by fall armyworms, but the poor appearance that results may justify treatment.

Insecticides recommended for homeowners on lawns are as follows: Formulations of carbaryl (Sevin) registered for lawns; chlorpyrifos (Dursban) formulations; diazinon (home lawns only).

Africanized Bees Continue Northerly Trek

Africanized bees continue their trek northward from the Mexican border into the United States. At Auburn University, Extension Entomologist Eric Benson says a swarm of Africanized honey bees was found in San Antonio, Texas, the tenth largest city in the United States. This places the bees at nearly 275 miles from where the first swarm was found near Brownsville, Texas, in October, 1990.

Mexican officials with the African Bee Program have reported two detections of Africanized honey bees in the southern part of Sonora. These are the first Africanized honey bee detections in Sonora, and the most western findings along the Pacific Coast.

Benson says Africanized bees haven't been sighted in Alabama, although the bees may eventually reach southern Alabama.

Africanized and domestic honey bees are virtually identical and cannot be distinguished by sight alone. In fact, Benson says the chief difference between Africanized bees and domestic honey bees is their behavior. Africanized bees tend to attack more readily and in larger numbers when their colony is threatened.

Benson says Africanized honey bees are more easily aroused by noises from nearby lawn mowers and chainsaws.

Africanized honey bees can be expected to spread to four more states—Arizona, California, New Mexico, and Louisiana—over the next 18 to 24 months, according to Benson.

Benson says how quickly the Africanized honey bees spread will depend on the weather and on geographic obstacles such as desert areas that offer no food or shelter.

Livestock Events & Dates To Remember

There are several important events throughout the month of August in and around Coffee County for livestock producers. In the next few paragraphs I want to tell you little about each of the up-coming events.

On August 14 and 15 is the Annual Coffee County Invitational and Steer Show. There are around 150 head of livestock from three to four different states each year. The show will begin on Friday night at 7:00 p.m. with Showmanship and will conclude on Saturday with the showing of the Classes.

On August 19 and 20 there will be a Conference On Managing Stocker Cattle For Health And Profit. This will be held at the Ham Wilson Livestock Arena at Auburn University. Subjects to be covered will include controlling shipping fever, controlling stress and nutrition, disease prevention, performance and production costs, supplemental feeding, stocker cattle budgets. Other topics to be covered will be what consumers, feeders, and packers are looking for and how to market your cattle for the best results. The conference does cost $30.00 this includes all your fees. If you are interested, give me a call at the Extension Office and I can tell you more about it.

On August 25 the Coffee Cattlemen Association will have their Annual Cattlemen's Sale at the stockyard in Elba. These sales usually kick-off right around 8:30 a.m.

On August 29 the Wiregrass Beef Cattle Improvement Association Heifer Sale will be held at New Brockton. This sale will feature top heifers from all over the Wiregrass including performance data on each heifer. It is sponsored by the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and the Alabama Beef Cattle Improvement CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS...Representing the Coffee County Farmers Federation, the Alabama Farmers Federation's 1992 Commodity Producers Conference in Mobile July 21-23 were, from left, Lynn and Bob Baker of Elba and Pat and Dan Presley of Enterprise. About 1,000 from throughout the state attended the 20th annual conference, which included tours featuring the state's 12 major commodities and several seminars on such key issues as food safety, water management and transportation regulations.

Peanut Harvest Time Will Soon Begin

Peanut Harvest

Peanut harvest is soon to begin, and the number one question in the area will be when to dig my peanuts. The Hull Scraper Method of determining the optimum maturity of August 18, 20, 25, and 27. It will be a peanut crop is very accurate. We held from 6:30 until 9:00 p.m. each evening.

There is no cost for this event. The minimum age is 9 years old. Preceptor by calling the Coffee County Extension Service at 894-5596.

There is a new regulation that any youth born after August 1, 1977 will need to take a certified hunter safety course in order to purchase their hunting license starting August 1, 1993. Most other states require that anyone purchasing a hunting license pass a certified hunter safety class. You will need to attend all 10 hours of this class and pass a test to become certified.

There is also a special youth hunt at Blue Springs, south of Andalusia, one week prior to the normal season opening. Your ticket to this youth hunt is that you have received a hunter safety class certificate.

Wetland Protection Hotline

The Environmental Protection Agency has introduced a Wetlands Protection Hotline. It provides referrals and information on federal regulatory programs and governmental actions concerning wetlands. The number is (800) 832-7828.

Cotton Hotline

Cotton growers can stay informed of the latest cotton insect activity by calling the Cotton Insect Hotline at 1-800-458-3738. A three minute updated message provides growers with the latest cotton insect activity around the state. This information is given by Ron Smith, Auburn University, Extension Entomologist.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

Maybe there is some message in our Monday evening experience. We got home around 9:30, stuffed some food into the stomach and decided to turn on the tube and catch the 10 p.m. news. Of course there wasn't the official news broadcast, but former President Reagan was holding court at the Republican convention. We don't know what he said because about that time our electric current went off and stayed off for about 45 minutes. We openly wondered if the former president "blew" our TV or if that just happened while he was speaking.

Our friends seemed to have enjoyed former President Reagan's Monday night speech. Apparently he was in great form and delivered a typical Reagan speech which captured the hearts of his listeners. Sorry we missed it. One man said Tuesday morning he was ready to vote Reagan back into office for four more years following that great speech!

Municipal elections are next Tuesday in all the area towns. We will be there casting our ballot - if Elba folks don't want us to make all the decisions, they better be sure to cast their vote also!

We urge everyone to visit the new Elba schools Sunday afternoon. While you might need a road map to get around the building and TO GET BACK OUT, it will be a treat, even for those who went through the facility earlier. One year from now, when all buildings are finished, the grass has completely covered the scars of the construction, etc., the beauty of the school park will be breathtaking!

Coffee County politics are heating up again. This is because county commissioners must run again and from altered districts. That is the word of the federal judge and we are gonna do what he says! County officials expressed some hope that there would be no challengers to the nominees of the respective parties and therefore no election expense, but that is not to be. Qualifying started Tuesday of this week and there was no shortage of candidates. We predict challengers are going to meet resistance from citizens who resent the new election, but this doesn't mean they can't upset the original nominees.

Football season is almost here again. It seems impossible that another fall season is already here, but it is. Elba football will be played at Miller Memorial Stadium for at least one more year. Work has started on a stadium facility in the new school park, but it is a long way from being ready for use.

That ugly political payoff called "liquor agents" has reared its ugly head again in Alabama. Investigations are underway into the claims by a liquor company that they were told to get a certain person as an agent if the company wanted to continue selling to the State of Alabama. It may be true but it also could be a desperate attempt by a company with slow sales which is about to be removed from Alabama liquor stores. We will let someone else make those judgments, we don't need their whiskey, nor that of their competitors.

Anti-George Bush folks are predicting a return to war in Iraq within the next few days. They argue this is the only way the man can boost his political standing with the American people. To the credit of Democratic Bill Clinton, he refuses to get into that exchange and instead has taken the high road. We hope Americans don't have to go back into Iraq, but if it is necessary, let's get it over with this time, once and for all. We might need to look at the problems in Eastern Europe also if we are going to continue as the world peacekeeper.

Power and Del Valle objected to the judge's not allowing the evidence and not hearing testimony of witnesses.

This deprives Mr. Magwood due process under the U.S. and Alabama constitutions and deprives him of a full and fair hearing, said Power.

At the request of his attorneys, Magwood was allowed to remain in the Coffee County Jail until 6:00 p.m. Friday or through the weekend if Sheriff Bruce Paul had no objections.

His (Magwood's) attorneys wanted to discuss with him what their next move would be on his behalf. According to Power, the judge's decision in last Thursday's hearing will be appealed to the Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals.

from Elba, as Mr. Foster had earlier accepted a coaching position with another school system. She was a Chapter 1 teacher with the Junior High age group students. Federal funding for this project has been cut and Pearce recommended the position not be filled.

Pearce assured board members the work being done by the Chapter 1 program would be accomplished by extending the GAP program to the Junior High classes. It is currently working in the high school and tragests the same education problems.

An increase in pre-registered enrollment of 21 students was recorded in one week recently by the schools, Pearce announced.

Approval was given for the Superintendent to add one additional janitorial unit in the system. Pearce explained this employee will work in the high school and cut grass around the buildings.

Pearce assured board members the slopes were graded to a 3-1 grade, which is the standard used by the Alabama Highway Department. Therefore there will be no problems cutting the grass on the slopes.

He also assured board members that safety barriers will be installed along the roadside overlooking the football field. The superintendent expressed hope to have all this done prior to opening of school on August 31.

The financial statement shows an increase of $100,000 which Pearce explained is money from sale of the classroom trailers. He said twelve of the remaining trailers have been spoken for, but no contracts or checks received. He expressed confidence the five uncommitted trailers will be sold before school starts.

ELECT

ELBA CITY COUNCIL
DISTRICT 5
"A Vote For Elba"

(Pd. Pol. Adv., By Joey Holley, 1007 Drayton Ave., Elba, AL 36323)

WE GET LETTERS.....

Dear Editor:

From a distance this summer I have tried to keep up with Elba News. Since my only references are the telephone and The Elba Clipper, I guess you can understand that my pursuit for the well rounded view is not the same as if I were at home. My two sources can only take me so far.

While that is not important, I must state that there have been a few issues of interest to me that I would have jumped to respond to, but none have had an effect on my political awareness and cultural sensitivity as did the material on the front page of the August 6, edition of your newspaper.

The issue that I would like to acknowledge was in an interview with Charles Marler. The tactless statement he made which struck my cultural nerve was "I would build them a playground so they would have a place to go rather than sell and smoke dope."

Now, what I can deduce from this statement is that Charles Marler is either a politically unstable man with no knowledge at all of what goes on in Mulberry Heights or he has taken an opportunity to utter in the African American vote in a semi-professional manner. Better yet, all of these.

There is so much that I can draw from that one statement which tells me that Charles Marler is not at all rhetorically prepared to sell his own campaign or is he ready to be a spokesman for any useful portion of Elba's community.

I understand Charles Marler's intentions but I can also see through them for just what they are. The use of this type of political tact is out of place and out of date. I can only analyze Charles Marler's interview as an undiplomatic attempt at swaying voters, while at the same time playing on their intelligence. And not only the voters of the Mulberry Heights Community but the entire city. How can Charles Marler single out one obstruction of social harmony which yields to no racial line. Above all, how can Charles Marler correct that one disfunction by building "a playground?"

Finally, I don't think that Charles Marler can possess such a philanthropic mentality by standing on Claxton Avenue or the 203 bypass looking in. And if a person does have such a minor he is full of pity and my people don't need pity, we need opportunity.

Thank you for allowing me to express myself.

Respectfully,
Willie A. Flowers
Washington, D. C.

Dear Editor:

As American citizens, we will long remember the year 1992 as the year for political uniqueness. Not only has our federal and state governments made decisions that have left us surprised, but our county government as well.

As a citizen of Coffee County, I have placed high value in what my county commission does to serve me. Their actions and decisions affect us more directly "at home" than that of higher officials. I have respected them for their efforts of progress, supported their decisions that would be in the best interest of all the people, and at no time voiced a public negative statement against their operations.

However, with the latest actions by the commission, I feel I must publicly state my opposition to a recent statement by Commissioner Eager in his press conference held recently. The statement to the effect that the burden of the cost of another election would rest with any qualifying candidate that opposes the winner of the June, 1992 election.

As Americans, we have sat back and let many of our rights be taken away while allowing rights that are spiritually and morally wrong be placed into effect.

Yet, as I have observed, the one right that has remained strong is the right of Democratic process relative to who runs our government. Americans have felt free to seek elections into public office they felt they could benefit their fellow man by serving.

Voters have exercised their right of process of election the individual they felt would do a just service to the people.

I sincerely solicit your vote and support.

What Is The Theory Of 'Thought' Inspiration And Is It In Keeping With The Teaching Of The New Testament?

This "theory of inspiration" alleges that all the Holy Spirit did for the New Testament writers was to supply them with the content or thought of the message, leaving it to them to determine the form in which it would appear, and the words by which it would be expressed. I regard it as clearly false and dangerous in tendency. (1) It fails to take into account that it is simply impossible to engage in "thought" without the use of words. Words are the vehicle of thought-the instrument by which they are both entertained and expressed. We can neither think, nor express thoughts, without words, any more than we can work mathematical problems without figures or write musical scores without notes.

(2) Further, the view raises serious questions regarding the integrity and accuracy of the message itself. We are solely dependent on words which the writers penned for the thoughts which they delivered. If they were dependent on their fallible, human judgment in the selection of these words, in any instance in which their judgment was in error, it is not possible for us today to discover what the Holy Spirit intended. One wrong word might obscure, or strike out, a truth essential to our salvation. The words are all we have. If there is no guarantee that the words of the Bible are the ones the Lord intended, then we have no way of determining what the thought is. If the words of the Bible are the words of men, and not the words of the Holy Spirit, then it is not possible to know which of the thoughts therein expressed are the thoughts of God and which are the thoughts of men, since any error of judgment, in the selection of a word, would extend to the thought, thus corrupting it.

Crampton Pledges To Benefit Alabama Children

Under a recently initiated program by Senior PGA Touring Professional Bruce Crampton, the Alabama Child Caring Foundation will receive contributions based on the number of birdies Crampton makes during the Bruno's Memorial Classic in Birmingham on August 14-16 at Greystone Golf Club.

Crampton's program, "Betin' on Bruce", selects one charity for each Senior Tournament in which he participates. Crampton picked the Alabama Child Caring Program because of their work to help needy children in Alabama.

Based on Crampton's average of ten birdies per tournament, a pledge of $25 per birdie would yield $250, enough to cover one child for a year in the Alabama Child Caring Program. Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama will match all contributions received dollar for dollar plus contribute all administrative expenses.

Call 1-800-424-3559 or 985-5640 in Birmingham to make your pledge to the "Betin' on Bruce" program. Pledges are accepted in any amount and you can combine pledges from friends and relatives to cover at least one child.

The Alabama Child Caring Foundation, established by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama, provides basic health care for children who are not covered by private insurance nor eligible for governmental programs like Medicaid.

Over 10,535 Alabama children have been helped through the Alabama Child Caring Program since its inception four years ago. However, a significant number of children remain on the waiting list to be enrolled in the program.

For further information on the Alabama Child Caring Program and "Betin' on Bruce", please call 1-800-424-3559. In Birmingham call 985-5640.

Citizens Of Cordelia Street Hold Regular Weekly Meeting

by Wanda Sasser

Members of the Senior Citizens of Cordelia Street met for their weekly meeting on August 13 at the HRDC building on Factory Street. Quite a few of the regular members were absent and missed out on the festivities. Even though it was a rainy and dismal day, spirits were high inside. Several members walked to various stores and others played dominoes. The group celebrated two birthdays—Marion Brunson and Sarah Smith. Everyone sang "Happy Birthday" and celebrated with a delicious lunch, after which they heard about some inviting tours from John and Peggy Sims.

Those attending were: Bonnie Wesley, Zed Bouyer, Celia Allen,

Frank and Lennie McCollough, Iris McDowell, Alvia Hudson, Mattie Wambles, Alene English, John and Peggy Sims, Jeanice Allen, Sheila Allen, Mayor Fred Moore, Jean Moore, Marion Brunson, Sarah Smith, Arnold Amenda, M. Boling, and Wanda Sasser.

Round And About With Eria 897-2006

Oh give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; for His lovingkindness is everlasting. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary.

And gathered from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. They wandered in the wilderness in a desert region; they did not find a way to an inhabited city. They were hungry and thirsty; their soul fainted within them. The Lord cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He delivered them out of their distresses.

He led them also by a straight way, to go to an inhabited city. Let them give thanks to the Lord for His lovingkindness, and for His wonders to the sons of men!

Patch collection donated to Elba Fire Department

A patch collection of over 300 patches from different fire departments has been donated to the Elba Fire Department.

Mrs. Edith Richards, who donated the collection, started the patch collection while employed with the Orlando Fire Department in 1973.

Most of the patches were collected in the first 16 years of employment.

After retirement, the Richards moved from Orlando in 1985 to Sugar Land, Texas where she was employed by the Sugar Land Fire Department until April of 1991.

More patches were collected during the six years that the Richards were in Texas.

Patches from the following foreign countries were also added to the collection: Belgium, South Africa, France, Mexico, Sweden, Australia, Germany, Canada, Norway, England and Japan. There are also patches from the North Pole, Hawaii, and many others places included in the collection.

The Richards presented the collection to the local fire department in June of 1991.

A display board for the patches was constructed by Mr. John Richards. Materials for the board were donated by Windham Lumber Company and Ace Hardware of Elba.

The fire department invites the public to come by and see the collection. There are also many other interesting items on display at the Elba Fire Station.

Patches from the following foreign countries were also added to the

Views From THE PRESSBOX By Ricky Mularz

My parents paid a visit over the weekend and got a chance to tour the new school and see many of the new buildings that have been constructed since the flood. They left Elba 18 years ago, but both were thrilled with the progress the city and its citizens had made and left feeling like Elba was prettier than ever before and on the verge of being something special. I don't mind telling you it made me feel mighty proud of our hometown!

NUMBERS ARE DOWN AT AREA FOOTBALL CAMPS

High school football practice started last week all across the state and at almost every school in the area the number of players on the teams was down considerably.

Thirty-two players were dressed out for picture day at Elba, while only around twenty are on the team at New Brockton, twenty-four at Kinston and around twenty at Zion Chapel.

There are several reasons tossed around for the decline in players out for the sport, but I think the real reason is that this is simply a different generation of kids and they don't place the importance on sports like today's parents did a couple of decades ago. Kids now would rather work and drive a car (or truck) with a deafening "boom box" in the back than work hard and sweat at football practice, and their parents aren't as hard when it comes to talking their kids into playing.

It's not the coaches or the quality of coaching, it's the kids and parents and that's what life is all about...change!

PRESEASON POLLS OMIT COUNTY SQUADS

The Elba Tigers, New Brockton Gamecocks and Enterprise Wildcats have been among the winningest high school football teams in the state for years and years. However, when the sportswriters released their high school football poll last week none of the three county teams were ranked in the Top 10 in their respective classes.

I'll admit that none of the teams did all that well last season and everyone knows it's what happened last year which determines who is in the poll, and not really what they think will happen this season. Still, it seems a little strange that all three were left out. Maybe by the end of the season the sportswriters will have to eat a little ink and put some Coffee County teams on the list.

BRAVES' TOMAHAWK HANGING UPSTAIRS

Since the Twins are in a slump, I guess I've become somewhat of a die-hard Atlanta Braves fan. I watch the Braves on TV every night, know the players and what they can't do, and have even started to second guess manager Bobby Cox, despite his success. I don't own a tomahawk or a Braves hat, but Melissa does have a tomahawk hanging up in her room next to her "Neon Deion" and "Justice Prevails" signs, so, I guess the Braves are becoming Braves fanatics.

New faces on the sidelines for '92 season

There will be some old faces, some new faces, and some familiar faces on the sidelines this year when the high school football season kicks off the week of September 4.

New head coaches will be walking the sidelines at both New Brockton and Zion Chapel, while the head men will return at Elba, Kinston and Brantley.

Coffee County teams fail to make preseason polls

The Alabama Sportswriters Association released its pre-season football rankings of the 1992 season, and for the first time in many years, no teams from Coffee County made the Top 10 in any of the six classifications.

The Elba Tigers (1989 3A champs), Enterprise Wildcats (two-time 6A state champs) and New Brockton Gamecocks (1988 2A runner-up) have long been three of the top teams in the state; however, all three fell on hard times a year ago and failed to make the '92 rankings.

The six defending champions all drew the top spot in their respective classes as Montgomery Lee (6A), Gadsden (5A), T.R. Miller (4A), Luverne (3A), Hazlewood (2A) and McKenzie (1A) all were picked as the teams to beat, once again.

The new season will bring about classification changes; however, among the new teams to watch will be Fayette County (10-4), which reached the 5A semifinals the past two years and this season will compete in 4A; Colbert County (7-5), a longtime playoff participant that won the state 5A title in '85 and placed second in 4A in '89, and will now compete in the 3A ranks; Litchfield (10-4), a state champion back in '86 in 4A and a 4A semifinalist a year ago, also moved down to 3A; Lauderdale County (12-2), a 3A semifinalist a year ago, now down in the 2A ranks.

Gadsden, McKenzie and T.R. Miller all share the state's longest winning streak, at 14 games, with Miller winning 27 out of his last 28 games.

Following are the complete pre-season rankings with 1992 records in parentheses:

PREP FOOTBALL '92

PART 3 IN A SERIES OF 4

Wood is the all-time winningest coach at football rich Elba with a mark of 125-47, and in the past nine years has guided the Tigers to a total of 85 wins, an average of over 9 wins per season.

Assistant coaches David Lowery (defensive coordinator), Bill Rayborn (defensive line) and Neil Henderson (offensive line) will be back with Wood on the Tiger staff, while new faces on the staff will include Curtis Lane (defensive back), Danny Weeks (offensive and defensive line) and Boyd English (student assistant).

The Elba Tigers' success in recent years has been a direct result of excellent coaching and again in '92 it appears that the Tigers have a staff as solid as any in any classification.

The New Brockton Gamecocks will find a new head coach roaming the sidelines for the third time in the past four years as James Boyette takes over from departed Ricky Nichols.

Boyet arrived at New Brockton after a stint as an assistant at Smiths Station High School, a 5A football power for many years, and is known as a hard worker and a perfectionist in all areas.

The Zion Chapel Rebels will have a new face, that resembles an old face, when former Rebel coach David Collins returns to take the ZC helm.

Marler, who had been out of coaching except on a volunteer basis for the past three years, began his coaching career at Dauphin Junior High, in Enterprise, and during his career has coached football, basketball, baseball and girls softball.

"I saw in the paper that they had an opening at Dale County," said Marler, "and I called the principal and then talked with the superintendent and Thursday morning accepted the position."

Marler, who replaces Phillip Parker, who resigned after guiding the Warriors to only 13 wins in four seasons, was given a ten-month, non-tenure contract.

District 5

"22 years in local business gives him the knowledge of dealing with people. As past and present president of SEABASS, he's been involved in projects to upgrade the Pea River, as well as head up various other civic projects. This year will be his 11th year as an employee with the Elba City School System, and his concern for Elba's youth remains a top priority. RONNIE JINRIGHT has the ability and willingness to work with others to help make Elba a better place. The citizens of District 5 and Elba need a councilman like RONNIE JINRIGHT! (Pd. Pol. Adv., By Ronnie Jinright, 342 W. Simmons, Elba, AL 36523)

SEABASS Holds Annual Awards Banquet

by Marvin McLain
Editor

The Southeast Alabama Bass Club held its annual awards banquet last Thursday evening at Home Folks Restaurant in Elba.

After enjoying a meal together, Mike McGuire, president of SEABASS, presented the awards for 1991-92.

The awards are given not for how many Bass you catch but how many pounds of Bass you manage to reel in during the year.

Recipients of this year's trophies were as follows: First Place - Danny Parker; Second Place - Ronnie Jinnight; Third Place - R. J. Lott; and Fourth Place - Kyle Padgett.

R. J. Lott was also presented a trophy for catching the biggest fish of the year. His catch weighed in at 9 pounds.

Winner of the Club Classic Tournament held each year was Ronnie Jinnight.

In describing the club's activities, Ronnie Jinnight said, "We're a civic minded club that is made up of men and boys who like to fish."

Since the club's organization in 1985, the membership has ranged from 12 members to more than 24 members.

In the past, the club has raised funds for the local rescue squad and fire department as well as made improvements to the community.

At Christmas time last year, club members donated more than 24 boxes of food to needy families. This has been done several times in the past.

One of the projects that the club was actively involved in before the March '90 flood was the construction of Pea River Park. The park is located at the U. S. Highway 84 bridge in downtown Elba.

The club was also involved in the preservation and improvement of the Pea River. They have, in the past, given boat tours to anyone wishing to view the Pea River.

Jinnight hopes that the club can once again become actively involved in promoting and improving Pea River.

"When the flood came, members of the club had to place their priorities on other matters - the rebuilding of Elba!" he said.

The club is open to anyone who enjoys Bass fishing and enjoys helping others.

Dorsey Truckers Win BCA Fleet Safety Awards Contest

Dorsey Trailers recently honored its over the road truck drivers at a recognition breakfast at the Elba plant.

These drivers, who deliver completed trailers to Dorsey customers, were winners of the recently announced Business Council of Alabama 1991 Fleet Safety Award. In addition to winning first place in their division, the Dorsey drivers were awarded with a Zero Frequency Rate Award for 1991, signifying accomplishment when you consider the hundreds of thousands of miles driven by these individuals each year.

These drivers, Williams Legear, James Morgan, Leon Miller, Buddy Mullins, Lamar Sawyer and Billy Powell have a combined length of service over 150 years with the company. The seniority of this group ranges from a low of 16 years to a high of 35 years of service with Dorsey.

During the award presentation, these men were commended not only for their safe driving habits, but for their customer service skills and dedication to their jobs.

The management and employees of Dorsey salute this special group and say "congratulations" on winning these two important awards!

Note Of Thanks

I would like to say "thank you" to my family, my neighbors and friends. All the prayers, food, and good cards, and calls they made to me, while I was in Jackson Hospital and Montgomery Rehabilitation Hospital, were very heartening. I have had two different knee surgeries within three months. I couldn't have made it without their help. I am doing great now. God bless each one.

Hydroblaster Now Available At The Farm Center

Peanut Harvest

Peanut harvest is now upon us, and we will be running the hydroblaster at the Farm Center again this year. The hullscrepe method of determining when to dig has been highly successful in predicting the optimum harvest time.

White Tailed Deer Teleconference

There will be a White Tailed Deer Teleconference, August 18 from 6:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. in the Community Room at the Farm Center in New Brockton. This will be put on by Lee Strubling with the Auburn University Extension Service.

Topics to be covered will be harvest strategies, tree stands, new laws and regulations, and everything you ever wanted to know about the white tailed deer.

Peanut Harvesting And Drying Clinic

There will be a Peanut Harvesting and Drying Clinic Thursday, August 20, from 9:15 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. at the Houston County Farm Center in Dothan.

An outstanding program has been planned. Topics to be covered will be crop maturity and hullscrepe by Dallas Harzog, insect update by Ron Weeks, diseases and pests by Austin Hagan, comments and proper drying of peanuts by Chuck Ogburn, comments from the Alabama Peanut opening. Your ticket to this youth hunt is that you have received a hunter safety class certificate.

There is also a special youth hunt at Blue Springs, south of Andalusia, one week prior to the normal season

Producers Association, alternatives in peanut marketing by Alan Miller, farm safety and directions of adjustments on the peanut combine by Don Rose.

There will be a sponsored lunch, door prizes, and an opportunity to visit with these speakers and view equipment.

Field Crop Field Day

The Field Crop Field Day will be at the Wiregrass Substation in Headland on Tuesday, August 25, starting at 8:30 a.m. and going to 12 noon. The meeting does not include a sponsored lunch.

Organizing Laundry Space Makes Life Easier

Organizing Laundry Space is an ever increasing variety of activities and the continuing decrease of the stay-at-home mom, means more dirty clothes with less time for laundry. Families need laundry areas that are convenient, efficient and centrally located.

Newer and more inventive locations are replacing the corner-in-the-basement laundry room. One popular choice is adjacent to the kitchen. By using existing plumbing lines and centralizing two home work areas, the homeowner saves both dollars and time. Storage and counter-top space can do double duty.

Another location is the bedroom/bath area, where the bulk of the soiled wash accumulates and most of the family's clothing and linens are stored. As more and more manufacturers are offering full capacity laundry units that fit almost anywhere, the bedroom/bath location is on the rise. Even the smallest bedroom or hallway closet can accommodate a mini laundry. To cut down on installation costs, select a wall that backs up to existing plumbing lines and remember even stacked dryers require venting.

By adding lowered doors and cosmetic cabinetry, the laundry area can often be concealed conveniently, but unusual areas of the household, such as the dining area (which allows back-up to the kitchen plumbing) or in a bedroom dressing area, a den, family room or home office.

Regardless of location, the most efficient laundry areas provide storage for both soiled and clean laundry, cleaning products and as needed, ironing and mending supplies. Other desirable features include a container or vehicle to move clothes from one part of the house to another, counter space for folding and sorting, a nearby sink for pretreating spots and stains, and a hanging area for permanent press items.

Other extras to consider include a fold-down ironing board which can be hidden in a cabinet door when not in use and an area for recharging small appliances. Flowering plants, with a plant light to keep them thriving, add color and cheer to the laundry area. For a practical touch, consider a small platform to raise the dryer off the floor so that no stooping or bending is required when clothes are loaded or unloaded.

Shoulder pads
Shoulder pads are an important fashion. However, sometimes agitation and tumbling in the laundry can cause shifting and clumping in the filling. Detachable shoulder pads should be removed before washing. For permanently attached pads, pinning a small safety pin through each end of the pad will help maintain its shape. Pin only through the pad, don't pin the pad to the garment.

Bo Boyd

Boyd Elected President Of Alabama Junior

Bo Boyd was elected president of the Alabama Junior Cattleman's Association at the Annual Junior Cattleman's meeting held in Montgomery August 7-8, 1992. Other officers of the AJCA are: Wade McCollum, first vice-president, Clay County; Tom Boatman, second vice-president, Blount County; Bunny Brooks, third vice-president, Morgan County; Heather Hicks, secretary, Cullman County; Elizabeth Messer, treasurer, Randolph County.

Alabama Junior Cattleman's Association was formed in the early 1960's to inform young people under the age of 20 about phases of agriculture and about state government and the election process. Today, the Alabama Junior Cattleman's Association has approximately 750 members throughout the state of Alabama.

Bo is a tenth grader at Elba High School and the son of Lee and Harriette Boyd.

Bush Beans Are Good Choice For Filling A Vacant Garden Lot

Do you have vacant garden space but can't decide what to plant? Consider planting bush beans. Bush beans are indeterminate in their growth habit, which means the beans will at some point set fruit at the apex of the plant and won't grow any larger.

Generally, bush beans set most of their fruit at about the same time. They also produce pods sooner than pole beans. Bush snapbeans produce in 50 to 60 days after planting; bush limas take about 70 days.

Bush limas, such as Henderson Bush, Fordhook 242 and Jackson Wonder, and bush snapbeans such as Top Crop, Contender and Bush Blue Lake, can be planted 6 inches apart after working in about 1/4 pound of 15-0-15 fertilizer per 10 feet of row. Additional fertilizer will probably not be needed.

Flowers should develop as temperatures moderate somewhat, so you should get good pod set. By early October, you'll be able to harvest. One major picking with a couple of minor late pickings will take care of the beans before the plants are pulled up. Besides having some good fresh beans in the fall, another benefit of a fall garden is that it will cause you to clean up the weeds and grass that may be growing now. By keeping your garden clean, you will prevent a lot of weed seed from being formed that you will have to contend with next year.

Landscape Teleconference

Get prepared for landscaping this fall by attending the landscape teleconference Thursday, August 27, at 7:00 p.m. in the Community Room at the Farm Center in New Brockton. The title of the program is "Residential Landscape Design."

This will be an excellent opportunity for you to learn about landscape design that you can apply to your own home situation.

Thank you for the many courtesies extended to me during my campaign for re-election.

I know I missed many of you during this campaign in spite of a strong effort to see each voter personally.

I humbly solicit your vote and support in my bid for re-election.

NUMBER 5

KATHRYN HOLLEY ELECTED MAYOR OF NEW BROCKTON

Haywood and Moore in run-off for Mayor of Elba

by Marvin McLwain
Editor

It did not take long after the polls closed Tuesday to know who would be serving as mayors and council members in area towns.

Voter turnout was not as great as some of the "experts" thought it would be.

Elba had 61% of its registered voters to vote, New Brockton had 63% and Kinston had 49%. This is considerably better than the 22% of county voters voting in the June primary.

The Elba City Council will have two new council members. Earl McCollough will be filling the District 3 seat while Ronnie Jimright will sit in the District 5 seat.

Ricky Haywood will be facing Fred Moore in the run-off for the office of mayor. Moore is the incumbent.

New Brockton has a new mayor in Kathryn Holley. Holley defeated incumbent Mayor Jim Driskell for the top slot.

Along with the new mayor, the New Brockton City Council will have three new members. They are: Jack Caradine in District 3, John Marler in District 4 and Robert Miles in District 5.

Municipal elections were held all over the state to determine who would be the leaders in local government.

The following is the unofficial results of municipal elections held in Elba, New Brockton and Kinston.

COURT RULES THAT EVIDENCE CHAIN WAS BROKEN

Creel conviction reversed and remanded

by Marvin McLwain
Editor

The Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals handed down a decision on August 21, 1992 ordering that the conviction of Joseph D. Creel be reversed and remanded.

The major factor in the Appellate Court's reversal of Creel's conviction was the "broken chain of custody" of the state's evidence.

There appeared to be missing links in the chain of custody of the vials of blood drawn from Creel on the date of the wreck.

In the shipping of the blood samples from the forensic lab in Dothan to the lab in Auburn, there was no evidence showing the identity of the person shipping the samples.

During Creel's trial, the state contended that, at the time of the fatal crash, he was driving his motor vehicle at a high rate of speed and under the influence of alcohol.

On April 5, 1991, Creel, age 26, of Elba, was convicted of two counts of homicide by vehicle and one count of assault in the second degree.

He was originally charged with two counts of murder and first-degree assault as a result of a two-car crash that occurred on July 8, 1990 near Elba.

The fatal collision took the life of Scotty Wayne Norris, 19, and Dorothy A. Skinner, 56, both of Elba. Myrtice Guy, 69, of Elba, was seriously injured in the head-on collision.

Upon conviction, Creel was sentenced by Judge Gary McAliley to five years in prison on each count of homicide by vehicle and 10 years for the second-degree assault conviction. All sentences were to run concurrently.

At the request of Creel's attorney, Merrill Shirley, Judge McAliley suspended all but two years of the sentence.

Also included in the judge's order, was the payment, by Creel, of $133,000 to the heirs of Mrs. Skinner and Norris and $150 to the Victims Compensation Fund. Restitution to Mrs. Guy was to be determined at a later date due to the ongoing treatment of her injuries.

On Tuesday afternoon, Chief Investigator for the 12th Judicial District Attorney's Office, Bruce Devane, stated that the Creel case would be retried in Coffee County's Circuit Court.

It is not known at this time just when the case will be placed on the court docket. The Attorney General's Office has asked that the Appellate Court review its decision.

Should the decision be upheld by the Court of Appeals, the Attorney General's Office plans to appeal the decision to the Alabama Supreme Court.

Creel remains free on a $30,000 appeal bond.

Commissioners were quizzed on roads, records and audits

by Marvin McLwain
Editor

Commissioners were quizzed on roads, records, audits and attorney's fees in Monday's Coffee County Commission meeting.

Dell Ellis appeared before the commission seeking an answer as to why the Palmer Road, a dirt road, had not been worked. He also commented that County Road 65 had a drainage problem.

Both of these roads are near the Geneva-Coffee County line and Ellis' mother was injured in an automobile accident on the dirt road some time ago.

County Engineer Mark Pool attempted to address Mr. Ellis' comments concerning the roads, but he, Ellis, left before Pool could get the floor.

Pool stated, for the record, that the Palmer Road had been maintained on a regular basis.

He also told commissioners that the county had attempted to acquire right-of-way deeds on the Palmer Road but no landowners on the road, including Ellis, would agree to give them to the county.

In addressing the drainage problem on Co. Rd. 65, Pool stated there was no problem. Possibly there might be drainage problems on private property along the road, but none on the county right-of-way.

Ellis questioned the commission on the storage of county records. When he asked where commission records are now stored, he was told that they are stored at the commission's offices in New Brockton.

He encouraged the commission to store all county records outside of the flood zone.

Things got a little touchy when Ellis began discussing the subject of obtaining in Coffee County.

Commission Chairman Billy Eagerton told Ellis that the commissioners would not comment on voting if it referred to the lawsuit, Ellis' vs. Coffee County Commission, now pending in federal court.

During the course of Ellis' comments, he eluded to the past court case in which his family (himself, his wife and his son and daughter) was indicted by a grand jury and later tried for illegally voting in Coffee County.

"This was an unjustified indictment. In my opinion," said Ellis, "it was an act of revenge!"

"I feel that this indictment was a desperate attempt by officials including the county attorney and the DA's Office to salvage a sinking reputation."

The Ellis family was later cleared of all charges and the indictments dismissed in Coffee County's Circuit Court.

against the commissioners resulted from the court case.

After Mr. Ellis kept referring to his voting rights case, Commissioner Sid Averett asked for the floor.

Averett said, "Our attorney advised us sometime ago that if anybody on the opposite side of this lawsuit tried to discuss it with this county commission, to please notify him."

At this point, Eagerton asked if the commission wished to take a ten-minute recess while the commission's attorney was contacted. They did.

After returning from contacting the attorney, Eagerton stated that no comments would be made by the commissioners in regards to the pending lawsuit.

Ellis concluded his comments to the commissioners by inquiring about audits and attorney's fees.

He asked who audited county records and how often this was done.

County Administrator Wilson Mobley stated that state auditors with the Alabama Department of Public Examiners are responsible for auditing county records.

According to Mobley, they decide when the records are to be checked. Currently, it is running about every two years.

In referring to attorney's fees, Ellis questioned the commissioners on how much the county was paying for legal fees.

Commissioners did not know a dollar amount, but stated that they, the fees, are a matter of public record and anyone wishing to do so can obtain that information.

Turning to other matters, Mark Pool stated that last Thursday, August 20, he accompanied Mark Pugh, Bailey Brunson, and archeologists to what was thought to be Indian burial sites on the proposed landfill site.

Mrs. W. R. Crook pointed out what she thought to be the burial sites or mounds.

After checking the sites, the archeologists found nothing to indicate that Indian remains were buried there.

Pool told commissioners that he had spoken with Russell Kelley who is over all landfill permitting. Kelley is with ADEM (Alabama Department of Environmental Management).

According to Pool, Kelley told him that current rules pertaining to landfills may or may not be changed. It is not known at this time if there will be any changes. Kelley is to keep Pool advised on the situation.

Commissioner Jim Dubose once again made a motion that the landfill site or future landfill not be sold without a vote of the people.

The motion was defeated in a
